1. Upon the entry of this Stipulation and Consent Order by the Court (the "Effective Date"), the Claim Objection shall be and shall be deemed resolved, without any adjudication of the merits of the Claim Objection, as to the Claim in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Stipulation and Consent Order. The execution and entry of this Stipulation and Consent Order shall not be deemed a waiver, relinquishment, or forfeiture of any rights to the proceeds of the letter of credit provided pursuant to the Collateral Agreement (the "Proceeds") that the Arrowood Parties or the Debtors may have under either the Settlement Agreement or the

3. The Debtors shall seek approval of this Stipulation and Consent Order by the Court, and this Stipulation and Consent Order shall be of no force and effect unless and until the occurrence of the Effective Date.

4. Upon the occurrence of the Effective Date, Garden City Group, Inc., the official claims agent appointed in these cases, is hereby authorized and directed to make revisions to the official claims register necessary to reflect the relief granted pursuant to this Stipulation and Consent Order.

5. This Stipulation and Consent Order may be executed in multiple counterparts, any of which may be transmitted by facsimile or electronic mail, and each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

6. This Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine any matters or disputes arising from or related to this Stipulation and Consent Order.
